Worship Ministry Resident

Island Home Baptist Church is an historic evangelical church located south of downtown Knoxville and is committed to worshipping the Lord Jesus Christ while being a light to our city and world. Founded in 1860, most people in the church have joined in the last year as our church is experiencing a new season of revitalization.

Our mission to make disciples of Jesus includes training leaders to serve his church. The Worship Ministry Residency exists to provide a Christian man the opportunity to help lead music ministry in our church and manage administrative priorities while simultaneously receiving training for church leadership. The position is meant to foster growth in godliness and skill while identifying giftedness as the resident experiences a church culture growing in health.
